

SUMMER "TAKES OFF" EARLY FOR FLORIDA RESIDENTS AT THE TRADEWINDS ISLAND RESORTS

FLORIDA RESIDENT SPECIAL INCLUDES $100 JETLEV JET PACK CREDIT

WHO: The TradeWinds Island Resorts – the Island Grand Resort and Guy Harvey Outpost – located along the Gulf of Mexico on the island of St. Pete Beach.

WHAT: Beginning April 7, the TradeWinds Island Resorts are offering Florida residents a high-flying special for spring and summer with rates as low as $127* per night, not including the nightly resort fee. The resort's Florida Resident Special includes 15% off already discounted rates, a $100 JetLev jet pack credit and a Surf n' Sun scratch-off card for one of several prizes that could include dinner for two, a beach bag and towel and more.

Florida residents can now fulfill their dream of flying with a ride on the JetLev – a water propelled jetpack that soars up to heights of 30 feet at 30 miles per hour. The exhilarating experience takes riders into the Gulf of Mexico aboard a custom-designed pack and allows them to fly over or even walk on the water. Now included in the nightly resort amenity fee is unlimited rides on the TradeWinds new beachfront slide which allows guests to plummet down three different slides from three-stories high. And guests of Guy Harvey Outpost are also treated to a nightly sunset cocktail reception. The fee also includes self-parking, hooded beach cabana, paddleboats and many other extras at both TradeWinds resorts.

Additional summer fun awaits families and couples alike with dive-in movies, the TradeWinds Bar Crawl and thrilling water sports right off the resort's beach, including banana boats and wave runners. In addition, colorful hair braiders, a henna tattoo artist and hand-crafted jewelry will be available all summer long. The TradeWinds popular pirate resident, Captain RedBeard, is also back for his twice weekly show, along with his animated sidekicks, First Mate Blaze and Bones the parrot. Fisherman Tim is also on hand to teach guests how to reel in the big one or at least tell a fish tale or two.
