

TradeWinds Island Grand – A Favorite for a Magical and Stress-Free Wedding Day

ST. PETE BEACH, Fla. – For weddings large and small, traditional and trendy, simple or extravagant, the TradeWinds Island Grand Resort promise stress-free planning and sophisticated service for brides-to-be. Lavish indoor affairs with twinkling lights, crisp linens and classic chair covers and barefoot beach weddings with linen suits, tropical bouquets and spectacular sunsets are just a few fantasy options, courtesy of the TradeWinds. Offering an idyllic beachfront setting for the big day, each ceremony package includes an exquisite events wedding day coordinator that assists with and coordinates the rehearsal, ceremony and reception. This exclusive service includes confirmation of all vendors, preparation of wedding day timeline, delivery of itinerary to all vendors and wedding venues and at least one coordinator on the big day.

Located on the island of St. Pete Beach, the romantic flagship property, TradeWinds Island Grand, showcases the area's tropical scenery in a number of venues, including the lush Garden Courtyard Gazebo, the magnificent Island Ballroom with its prominent pyramid lighting and the enchanting draped Pavilion. The Island Grand is also home to its own secluded beaches such as South Beach, Jacaranda Beach and North Beach. Outdoor ceremonies and rehearsal dinners that take place at the beachfront gazebo or on a lovely Gulf front paved deck are a popular option. Couples looking for a romantic getaway can sip champagne in a beautifully appointed Gulf front suite.

From the rehearsal dinner and the ceremony to the reception and post-wedding brunch, TradeWinds has the ideal location and unique venues for any wedding affair, large or small. Hosting more than 200 weddings annually, the TradeWinds Island Grand provides brides with experienced catering sales managers eager to make every wedding occasion a memorable one.

-more-

Set upon the sugary white beaches of the Gulf of Mexico, the TradeWinds Island Resorts – Island Grand the RumFish Beach Resort - offer a plethora of unique vacation experiences. Newlyweds can share their first days together cruising the lush waterways of the TradeWinds Island Grand or indulge in something a bit sportier such as a fishing excursion at the RumFish Beach Resort. Wedding guests don't have to leave the property with the variety of activities offered ranging from the High Tide Slide, JetLev jet pack, floating water park, paddleboarding, floating cabanas, YogaFit classes, complete spa services and more. Guests of each resort share amenities with both properties, which are a short walking distance from one another.

For information on planning a TradeWinds wedding at the Island Grand, please contact the wedding sales manager at (727) 363-2309 or visit www.JustLetGo.com.

- TradeWinds -

MEDIA INFO:
Kelly Grass Prieto, APR
Hayworth Public Relations
386-677-7000, ext. 2
kelly@hayworthpr.com
www.justletgo.com/media